

SEPTEMBER 2011 NEWSLETTER

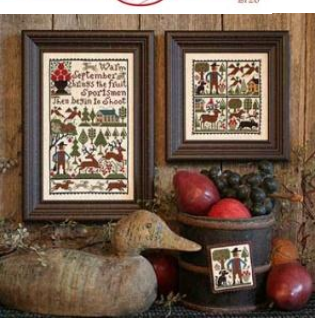

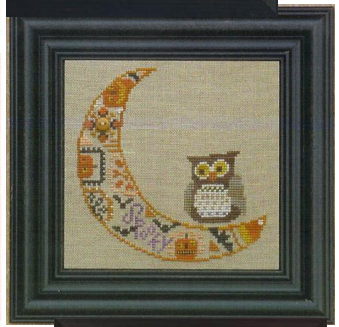

Oh my gosh, where should I begin. I Love Fall!!! The Fall Market was just 2 weeks ago so all the great Fall and Winter pieces are arriving. Please check out the What's New Page on Crossestitchery.com. Well here I go ,Amy Bruecken has been designing really fun pieces to be used in a baby or child's room. Chessie n me has 3 awesome fall pieces (one that Sue already has stitched) Prairie Schooler has the new Santa plus 2 fall designs and 2 Christmas. Blue Ribbon Designs has a new one in a quilt design for all of you multi-crafters. Carriage House is back at full strength again and they have added to Hawk Run with the Farms of Hawk Run Hollow. This is definitely my favorite of the 5. La d Da came out with The Crow last month and has added The Raven this month. Both are so cool. Tempting Tangles is a new designer for us. They have a little bit of a European flair , very pretty. Aury designs has a bit of a love affair with Quaker motifs. Their newest patterns have some really funky characters incorporated in these motifs. Lizzie Kate of course has cute new designs with the highlight being a new collage of their patterns. 6 Fat Men are 6 different snowmen patterns that can be put together to make a really adorable big picture, but these patterns are definitely good on their own. We are bringing more wool patterns in plus more wool. Penny Lane Primitives and Cath's Pennies are two new wool pattern companies for us. We have two classes using their designs. There are so many new things that I am giddy with excitement. WE JUST NEED MORE TIME!! I know I am leaving some of the news out but come on in and be inspired.

Our Friends, Barb and Alma were lucky enough to study over 180 Samplers at the Spencer Museum of Art in Lawrence, Kansas. They chose their favorite 24 to share in this lovely bookset. Stories and photos abound in the first 2/3 of 104 pages. Then they have made their own designs using motifs and ideas from the historical pieces. This is an awesome piece. We are collecting some of the various finishing pieces and should have them for sale soon. This book is a must have!
